

ABSTRACT

Combining the approaches of cavity ring down spectroscopy with surface plasmon resonance spectroscopy allows creation of an ultra-high sensitivity apparatus
5 to detect extremely low concentrations of chemicals and biomolecules.

10